SPECIAL PARISH EVENT

ENFLAME ASCENSION

Ascension parish will be hosting a free, exciting one-day event on January 25!

We will be discussing why and how we might choose, as adults, to become more intentional followers of Christ. Faith is a very personal, intimate encounter with Jesus.

As Catholics we often confuse 'personal' with 'private'. But we are called by Christ to not only live as intentional disciples but as a people who can share their faith with family, friends and others in a respectful and meaningful way.

Consider joining us on January 25 where together we will explore how each of us can all become more intentional about our own relationship with Christ and how to share our faith with others.
